OPERATION SINDOOR: INDIA'S DECISIVE RESPONSE TO PAHALGAM TERROR

In a swift and significant escalation, India has launched "Operation Sindoor," a major military offensive targeting terrorist infrastructure deep within Pakistan and Pakistan-Occupied Kashmir (PoK). The operation, initiated in the early hours of May 7, 2025, comes as a direct retaliation for the heinous terror attack in Pahalgam, which claimed innocent lives and sent shockwaves across the nation.

Highly placed intelligence and military sources have confirmed that Indian forces, spearheaded by the Air Force, executed a series of precision air strikes. These strikes were aimed at dismantling key operational hubs, training camps, and launchpads of terrorist organizations, primarily Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) and Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) – groups notoriously linked to numerous past attacks on Indian soil.

OPERATION SINDOOR: STRIKES AND TARGETS

According to emerging intelligence, the coordinated strikes under #OperationSindoor targeted multiple strategic locations:
